

Let noble thoughts come to us from every side

Holi Mahotsav 15 and 16 March 2008 (2 Days) at Tumbalong Park & Chinese Gardens, Darling Harbour – Reservations of stalls

As you are aware we at Bhavan Australia every year celebrate Holi Mahotsav – festival of colours, friendship and harmony at Darling Harbour for past 5 years. Holi Mahotsav (the grand Indian festival of colours, friendship and harmony) has now become a mainstream Australian festival attracting tens of thousands of people.

The Holi Mahotsav 2008 will be celebrated over two days starting on 15 March at 10am with Street procession / Rath Yatra from Hyde Park through the streets of Sydney CBD finishing into Darling Harbour. This will be followed by day long cultural performances until 7pm.

The colour throwing session in designated area throughout the day will be held on the second day of the festival starting at 10am and finishing at 6:00pm. The cultural performances will continue throughout the second day as well. Offcourse there will be delicious vegetarian food stalls and merchandise stalls on both the days of the festival.

The Chinese Garden will have special Marquees for the Indian Lifestyle Exhibition including Yoga, Ayurveda, Krishna Temple and other related activities.

We once again invite you to be a part of this grand festival and book a food / merchandise stall and showcase your products and services using this unique platform.

The participation costs for two days are as under:

- Merchandise Stall (size: 2.4 m X 2.4 m – with roof and half wall): $1, 150. In addition a refundable (subject to conditions) bond money of $100 is payable.

In the interest of all our stall owners we will be limiting to only 10 food stalls and 20 merchandise stalls. Booking for the stalls will be accepted on a first-come first served basis. The initial booking form is attached. The booking for the stall should be done latest by the 4 March 2008 with full payment including the bond as stated in the form.

The Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority has certain formalities including the standard application forms for the stalls to be completed. These forms will be completed after your initial booking confirmation has been received.

We also offer various other sponsorship opportunities including advertisement in the souvenir edition of our monthly magazine Bhavan Australia. Please contact us by telephone, fax or e-mail for any information.

Best regards

Gambhir Watts,
President
